DEFENDANTS

Notification of Fraud Upon this Honorable Court

I, Steven Palange, the plaintiff in the above-captioned matter notifies this honorable court that an additional fraud upon this court has been initiated by a majority if not all of the defendant's attorneys. I reason as follow:

All defendants claim that my Rhode Island Family Court matters have been fully litigated in the Family Court and the Rhode Island Supreme Court. The defendants have omitted that their agents and people working on their behalf have corruptly influenced the proceedings of the RI Family Court and that of the RI Supreme Court. This notification specifically addresses the fact that at least two of the appeals to the RI Supreme Court, filed by me, were criminally obstructed and delayed from being docketed in the RI Supreme Court by the defendants. The Rhode Island Family Court was influenced by Michael B. Forte and other individuals and defendants related to this matter to delay and obstruct the docketing of an appeal I filed on January 16, 2019, until April 08, 2019. Eighty-two days. Another appeal I filed on 04/25/2019 was delayed and obstructed from docketing for 132 days until 09/04/2019. Both of these obstructions and delays indicate that I do not have access to an honest Rhode Island Court. This Court should also take judicial notice that the Final Judgment of Divorce of the Rhode Island Family Court has never been appealed, vacated, reopened, modified, and is the only judgment in Rhode Island Family Court that this court should recognize as legitimate, final, and subject to the protection of res-judicata.

Respectfully submitted,

Steven J. Palange
